FOREWORD

This pamphlet provides general information about the approval of courses at foreign schools. It also provides specific information for veterans, inservice students and dependents who are planning to pursue training at a foreign school. This pamphlet lists those foreign schools which offer at least one course approved for training. NOTE: Not necessarily all the courses at a listed school are approved for training. Please read this pamphlet carefully.

RESCISSION: VA Pamphlet 22-75-2, dated January 1975

Distribution: Per VA Form 3-7235
FD and 3-7235a

FOREIGN TRAINING FOR VETERANS, INSERVICE STUDENTS, AND ELIGIBLE DEPENDENTS

1. ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for training in a foreign school, a veteran, inservice student or dependent must meet the same basic eligibility requirements as one who attends a school in the United States. VA Form 22-1990V, Notice of Eligibility to Education or Training Benefits, is issued automatically to recently discharged veterans who have basic eligibility. This form or any other appropriate application form should be submitted to the VA so that a determination can be made to approve VA training at the particular institution requested. When approval is granted, you will be forwarded a certificate of eligibility which outlines the number of months of eligibility you have as well as the date this eligibility expires. You should have this document in your possession before you leave the United States. Remember to submit your application in enough time to have the program of education approved before leaving the United States. Sixty days in advance is recommended.

2. INSTRUCTIONS FOR VETERANS, INSERVICE STUDENTS AND ELIGIBLE DEPENDENTS

a. Before leaving the United States:

(1) Determine if the course or program is approved for training. (See par. 4.)

(2) Make arrangements with the school for acceptance, enrollment, payment of tuition and fees, and for any other requirements such as living accommodations.

(3) Make arrangements for travel including passport, visa and vaccinations, as required.

(4) Maintain a sufficient financial reserve to care for all needs until educational assistance allowance payments begin.

(5) If you desire to receive an advance payment of your first educational benefits check, find out from the appropriate VA office (see subpar. b(3) below for addresses) if the school you wish to attend is able to handle advance payment checks. An advance payment will allow you to receive a check covering benefits for the first 2 months of attendance at the time of your registration. However, many foreign schools operate at several widely separated locations and therefore find it difficult to locate a particular student and deliver the check. If an advance payment cannot be processed for the school you have selected, you will receive your first check after registration.

b. After enrolling at a foreign school:

(1) Submit your application to the VA (60 days in advance of departure).

(2) When you receive the certificate of eligibility, take it with you and submit it to school officials for completion of the enrollment certification (on reverse side of the certificate of eligibility).

(3) Airmail the completed enrollment certification to the Washington Regional Office, 941 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20421. If the school is located in Mexico, send the completed enrollment certification to the VA Regional Office, 2515 Murworth Street, Houston, Texas 77054. If the school is located in the Philippines, send the completed enrollment certification to the VA Regional Office, 1131 Roxas Boulevard, Manila, Philippines. Prompt processing of your application for foreign training will be greatly facilitated if you send your application to the appropriate office.

3. REENTRANCE

Normally, foreign schools certify their students for the complete academic year. If you are to attend a foreign school for more than 1 year, you should notify the school of your intention to reenroll and have the appropriate official submit an enrollment certification. If your school does not have a supply of the proper VA enrollment certification forms, you or the school should request a supply of them from the appropriate VA office. You should keep the school well advised of your plans for continuing in order to avoid any delay in your benefits.

4. APPROVAL INFORMATION

Information concerning the approval status of courses or programs of study can be obtained from the VA offices listed in par. 2b(3). You are cautioned that although a foreign school may be listed as approved in this pamphlet, it is possible that the specific course or program you wish to pursue at that school has not yet been approved. When submitting an inquiry or application to the appropriate VA office, please indicate your planned course or program as precisely as possible. This will help the VA determine the course approval status as quickly as possible and thus enable you to initiate any approval procedures which may be necessary without undue delay (see par. 6).

5. RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN TRAINING

The law places specific restrictions on the enrollment of veterans, inservice students and dependents in foreign schools.

a. Except for PREP (Predischarge Education Program) courses which an inservice student may pursue at an Overseas Dependents School or a school under contract with the Department of Defense, an inservice student, veteran or dependent may only pursue a program of education at an institution not located in a State when the program is pursued at an educational institution of higher learning.

b. The course or program must lead to a degree or the equivalent which is comparable to a degree granted by a fully recognized degree-granting public university located in the same country.

c. The program must have the same entrance requirements as the degree programs offered by the fully recognized degree-granting public universities in the same country.

6. APPROVAL PROCEDURES

Courses offered by schools in the Philippines are subject to approval by the Director of the Manila regional office. Courses offered by all other foreign schools are subject to approval by the Director, Education and Rehabilitation Service, VA Central Office. If a veteran, inservice student or dependent wishes to attend a course that is not approved, he or she should ask the school to apply for approval. The VA can take no action until an application is received from the school.

a. Officials at a foreign school which has not been approved to offer any courses for veterans' training should contact the nearest United States Foreign Service post to make application. Applications submitted to the Foreign Service post will be forwarded to the Director, Education and Rehabilitation Service (223B). Schools in the Philippines should contact the Director, VA Regional Office, 1131 Roxas Boulevard, Manila, Philippines, to submit an application. The application contains information that the VA must have to consider the school's courses and programs. If a properly completed application is received, all courses and programs which meet the requirements outlined in paragraph 5 will be routinely approved.

b. A foreign school that already offers one or more courses or programs for training may request the approval of additional programs by writing directly to the Director, Education and Rehabilitation Service (223B), VA Central Office, 810 Vermont Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20420. In the Philippines, the letter should be sent to the Director of the Manila regional office. The request should identify the additional program or programs which the school wishes approved and should include two copies of the school's current catalog or other publication describing the program.
